

The Civil War Chapter 10

How did the Civil War affect the United States and its people?

Key Content Terms

As you complete the Reading Notes, use these Key Content Terms in your answers:

Anaconda Plan	draft riot
Emancipation Proclamation	Copperhead bread riot
Gettysburg Address	54th Massachusetts Regiment
Sherman's March to the Sea

PREVIEW

Carefully examine the photographs your teacher projects and answer the following questions:

- What are six interesting details you see?
- What historical event do you think is being reenacted? How can you tell?
- What groups of Americans are represented in the photographs? What other groups might have been affected by the Civil War?

READING NOTES

Section 2

After reading each subsection in Section 2, respond to the following in your notebook:

The Anaconda Plan Begins to Squeeze the Confederacy

Create a simple map or diagram that shows the three key strategic elements of the Anaconda Plan. Label each element.

Do you think the name Anaconda Plan was appropriate? If so, why? If not, what would you have called it? Why?

The Emancipation Proclamation Changes Union War Aims

President Lincoln said "my paramount object in this struggle is to save the Union." List three reasons why Lincoln eventually decided that emancipating (freeing) enslaved African Americans would help meet that objective.

Turning the Tide: Vicksburg and Gettysburg

Create a historical marker for the battle of Gettysburg. The marker should include

- the dates and location of the battle.
- the number of soldiers who were killed or wounded.
- a short description of why this battle was significant in the course of the war.
- an appropriate visual symbol for the battle.
- a quote from the Gettysburg Address.

Notes

Notes

Total War Forces the South to Surrender

Explain what is meant by the term total war. What actions did Union forces under General William T. Sherman take against the South while using the total war strategy?

Imagine General Sherman gave you the task of creating a symbolic name for his total war strategy, such as the Anaconda Plan. What would it be and why?

PROCESSING

List the five most important effects of the Civil War. For each item, be sure to include the name of the group or groups affected and an explanation of why you think the effect was so important.

↑ Share Day 28

Sections 3 to 6

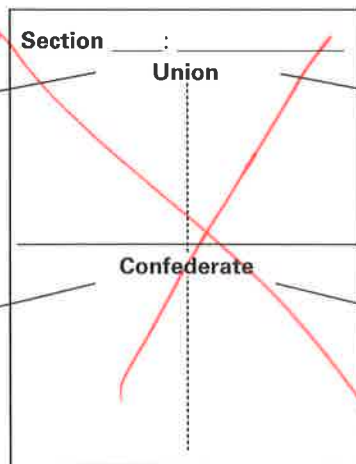

Set up your Reading Notes as described here and as shown below:

1. For each section, write the section number and title at the top of a new page in your notebook (for example, Section 3: Challenges Facing Government Leaders).
2. Divide each page into four sections. Write "Union" at the top of the page and "Confederate" beneath the horizontal line.
3. After each interactive dramatization, read the appropriate section and complete your Reading Notes as described below.

3. List details for N and S for each section in notes

List at least two important pieces of information you saw in the interactive dramatization and read about in this section.

List at least two important pieces of information you saw in the interactive dramatization and read about in this section.

List at least two important pieces of information you read about in this section but did not see in the interactive dramatization.

List at least two important pieces of information you read about in this section but did not see in the interactive dramatization.